

Preston Manor

We went to Preston Manor and we saw a chandelier. The servants had to wash every single jewel on the chandelier at Christmas. They had to clean it. We also made ginger biscuits and washed clothes and made lemonade. I James had to clean the fire place. Mr E. Liphinck was very good at acting as a butler. He said to me when I was cracking the egg. "This is an egg!"

this is the chandelier in an accent. This made me laugh. It must have been hard work being a servant
in Victorian times
because they had to work so many hours.
It was good fun just for a day. I wanted to stay!!!
